

Behaviour and Discipline Policy

Withington Girls' School

September 2016

1 Policy aims

1.1 The aims of this policy are:

- 1.1.1 to enable the Headmistress to carry out her responsibilities of maintaining order and good discipline in the School;
- 1.1.2 to promote good behaviour and support positive behaviour modification;
- 1.1.3 to ensure, so far as possible, that every pupil in this School is able to benefit from and make her full contribution to the life of the School, consistent always with the needs of the school community;
- 1.1.4 to authorise the Protocol for Behaviour, the School Rules and any procedures necessary for implementing them.

2 Ethos and Protocol for Behaviour at Withington Girls' School

- 2.1 Withington Girls' School aims to provide a caring, friendly and supportive environment in which every member of the School community is well known, well supported and encouraged to achieve their full potential.
- 2.2 The Withington ethos is based upon the 'three Rs' of Respect for self, Respect for others and acceptance of Responsibility for personal actions. At all times pupils are expected to follow the instructions of their teachers, enable high-quality teaching and learning to proceed and work individually and in teams in order to achieve their potential, both within and outside the classroom.
- 2.3 Pupils are expected to show consideration for others, for property and the school environment at all times. Expectations regarding personal responsibility, behaviour and discipline and details of the different people to whom a pupil can turn if they have any concerns during their time at the School are given in the pupil planners, in the Staff Handbook and in the relevant school policies (Anti-bullying, Child Protection, and Equal Opportunities). These principles will be reinforced in assemblies, in form time and PSHCE, in our daily interactions and at all possible opportunities.
- 2.4 Parents are expected to support and reinforce these principles with their daughters.

3 School rules

3.1 The School Rules shall be set by the Headmistress. The School Rules are necessary:

- 3.1.1 for the safety and well-being of everyone at the School;
- 3.1.2 for the reputation of the school community as a whole;
- 3.1.3 for the protection of school property and the wider environment.

3.2 The School Rules apply to all age groups and at all times when the pupil is:

- at school, representing the School or wearing school uniform
- travelling to and from school
- associated with the School at any time

- 3.3 All Pupils are expected to respect and obey the few School Rules which are:
- not absenting themselves from lessons without permission from either their Form Tutor, Head of Year or Subject Teacher or the School Nurse;
 - following all the School policies;
 - coming directly to School from buses or cars and not going out of school without permission and without signing out;
 - Following regulations on school uniform, smoking, alcohol, illegal substances, food and drinks in school, use of ICT, mobile phones or other devices, and photography in school.
- 3.4 In addition, Senior School pupils are expected to know and understand the Senior School Rules and to read them through with their parents. The School Rules will be amended from time to time and reinforced in assemblies and on other appropriate occasions. In the Junior School the emphasis is also on respect and responsibility as set out in the Junior School statement on Behaviour Management.

4 Scope

- 4.1 The Governors and the Headmistress intend that the School Rules, this policy and the sanctions provided in them shall also, in appropriate circumstances, be capable of regulating the conduct of pupils when they are away from school premises and outside the jurisdiction of the School, for example during the holidays. This will normally be where the conduct in question could have repercussions for the orderly running of the School, affects the welfare of a member or members of the School community or a member of the public, or which brings the School into disrepute.
- 4.2 This policy and the School Rules can be made available in large print or other accessible format if required.

5 Rewarding good behaviour

- 5.1 The School understands that rewards can be more effective than punishment in motivating pupils. The School is committed to promoting and rewarding good behaviour and may do so in some of the following ways:
- praise by staff
 - personalised letters to parents
 - certificates which recognise contributions to the School Community
 - celebration assemblies
 - celebration events
 - special privileges
- 5.2 Pupils' personal achievements in terms of being aware of, and sensitive to the needs of others, of being helpful in and out of school, of showing initiative, of acting as positive ambassadors for the School are recognised within Form Tutor sessions, Year group assemblies and in weekly and end-of-term whole-school assemblies. In line with the School's philosophy of not offering academic prizes, but encouraging the joy of learning to be its own reward, acts of kindness are acknowledged but also expected to be the norm.
- 5.3 The School recognises that where challenging behaviour is related to a pupil's special educational need or disability, use of positive discipline and reward methods may enable the School to manage the pupil's behaviour more effectively and improve their educational outcomes.

6 Breaches of school discipline

6.1 The School has pastoral support systems in place to assist pupils in managing their behaviour. A range of sanctions are available for those who breach the School rules and policies for behaviour and discipline.

6.2 When considering the appropriate sanction, the risks posed to pupil welfare by an individual's behaviour will be assessed. This may include consideration of how any action taken, sanctions applied or inaction may affect that individual's welfare and, where appropriate, how it may affect other pupils' welfare and/or the School community as a whole.

6.3 Serious breaches of discipline

6.3.1 For serious breaches of discipline, a pupil may be asked to leave the School permanently. All serious disciplinary matters must be reported to the Headmistress. Please see the School's separate Expulsion, Removal and Review Policy.

- (a) Expulsion: A pupil may be formally expelled from the School if it is proved on the balance of probabilities that the pupil has committed a very grave breach of School discipline or a serious criminal offence. Expulsion is reserved for the most serious breaches.
- (b) Removal: The Headmistress may require the removal of a pupil from the School if, after consultation with the parents and if appropriate the pupil, the Headmistress is of the opinion that:
 - (i) the pupil has committed a breach or breaches of School rules or discipline for which Removal is the appropriate sanction; or
 - (ii) by reason of the pupil's conduct or progress, the pupil is unwilling or unable to benefit sufficiently from the educational opportunities offered by the School; or
 - (iii) a parent has treated the School, members of its staff or any member of the School community unreasonably.

6.3.2 The Headmistress is required to act fairly and in accordance with the principles of natural justice. The Headmistress will make a decision on a case-by-case basis and will expel or remove a pupil from the School only as a last resort. Please see separate policy on Expulsion, Removal and Review.

6.3.3 Suspension: A pupil may be placed under suspension for a limited period as a neutral act pending the outcome of an investigation or a Governor's Review, or as a disciplinary sanction in its own right. Parents will be required to attend a meeting with the Headmistress and a senior colleague when they collect their daughter to commence her period of suspension. The Chair of Governors will be informed by the Headmistress of any pupil who is suspended. Every support will be given to the pupil concerned upon her return, in terms of catching up with missed work and avoidance of repetition of the breach of school rules.

6.4 Other sanctions:

- There has never been a formal punishment system for infringement of rules or inconsiderate behaviour at Withington. The Subject Teacher is responsible for the management of their pupils during lessons and ensuring that work is done as required. Pupils who persistently misbehave will be discussed with the Form Tutor, Head of Department or Head of Year as appropriate and will be given support to enable them to behave appropriately. Sanctions might include specific seating plans, being put on report, reporting to a Teacher at break or lunchtime.
- If a pupil is failing to produce work of an adequate standard through lack of effort, sanctions which support and encourage them will be applied, for example, the use of homework reports and one-to-one support. For pupils experiencing specific difficulties with aspects of their work, additional learning support will be offered.
- Out of lessons, individual members of staff deal with minor transgressions as appropriate, for example, challenging breaches of uniform rules. Repeated transgressions or more serious problems are referred to the Form Tutor or Head of Year, who may involve the Deputy Head, Director of Studies, Head of Junior School or Headmistress as necessary. In the case of persistent concerns, the Deputy Head, Director of Studies, Head of Junior School or Headmistress will be informed, and parents will also be contacted and usually invited into school to discuss the situation.

These sanctions will form part of the pupil's permanent disciplinary record.

The Headmistress may prescribe and authorise the use of such other sanctions as comply with good education practice and tend to promote the School's Ethos and Protocol for Behaviour and compliance with the School Rules.

6.5 Parent involvement

The School seeks to work in partnership with parents over matters of discipline, and it is part of parents' obligations to the School to support the School rules.

Parents will be contacted to discuss any disciplinary matter which may result in suspension, or where Removal or Expulsion is being considered. Parents will also be notified of any other disciplinary sanction and may be contacted to discuss the matter if it is considered appropriate to do so.

6.6 Corporal punishment: Corporal punishment is not used at Withington Girls' School.

7 Additional Needs:

7.1 The School will make reasonable adjustments for managing behaviour which is related to a pupil's special educational need or disability. Where expulsion needs to be considered, the School will ensure that a pupil with a disability or special educational needs is able to present their case fully where their disability or special educational needs might hinder this. Any religious requirements affecting the pupil will also be considered.

7.2 If there is a concern that a pupil's behaviour is as a result of unmet educational or other needs, advice should be sought from the Head of Learning Support and further action in accordance with the School's Policy on Special Educational Needs will be considered.

- 7.3 Where Expulsion needs to be considered, the School will ensure that a pupil with a disability or special educational needs is able to present their case fully where their disability or special educational needs might hinder this.
- 7.4 Where behavioural issues give rise to a safeguarding concern, the School's child protection procedures will be followed. See the School's Child Protection Policy.

8 Malicious allegations against staff

- 8.1 Where a pupil makes an accusation against a member of staff and the accusation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the Headmistress will consider whether to take disciplinary action in accordance with this policy.
- 8.2 Where a parent has made a deliberately invented or malicious allegation, the Headmistress will consider whether to require that parent to withdraw their child or children from the school on the basis that they have treated the school or a member of staff unreasonably and compromised the requirement for mutual trust and confidence.
- 8.3 In accordance with Part 4 of the DfE's guidance Keeping children safe in education (2016), the School will consider a malicious allegation to be one where there is sufficient evidence to disprove the allegation and there has been a deliberate act to deceive.

9 Use of reasonable force

- 9.1 Any use of force by staff will be reasonable, proportionate and lawful. Reasonable force will be used in accordance with the DfE guidance Use of reasonable force (July 2013) may be used to prevent a pupil from doing or continuing to do any of the following:
- committing a criminal offence
 - injuring themselves or others
 - causing damage to property, including their own
 - engaging in any behaviour prejudicial to good order and discipline at the School or among any of its pupils, whether that behaviour occurs in a classroom or elsewhere.
- 9.2 In these circumstances, force will be used for two main purposes: to control pupils or to restrain them. Reasonable force may be used, for example, to restrain a pupil at risk of harming themselves or another individual or to prevent a pupil leaving a classroom where allowing him / her to do so would risk his / her safety or lead to behaviour that disrupts the behaviour of others.
- 9.3 In addition, reasonable force may be used to conduct a search for a "prohibited item" (see the School's separate policy on searching and confiscation).
- 9.4 In deciding whether reasonable force is required, the needs of individual pupils will be considered and reasonable adjustments will be made for pupils with special educational needs or disabilities.
- 9.5 Where reasonable force is used by staff, this is recorded in writing and the pupil's parents will be informed about serious incidents involving the use of force. Force is never used as a form of punishment.

10 Searching pupils

- 10.1 Informed consent: The School staff may search a pupil with their consent for any item. If a member of staff suspects that a pupil has a banned item in her possession, they can instruct the pupil to turn out her pockets or bag. If the pupil refuses, sanctions will be applied in accordance with this policy.
- 10.2 Searches without consent: In relation to prohibited items, the Headmistress, and staff authorised by the Headmistress, may search a pupil or a pupil's possessions, without their consent, where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that a pupil has a prohibited item in their possession. Please see the School's separate policy on searching and confiscation. Such action will be taken in accordance with the DfE guidance Screening, searching and confiscation (February 2014).

11 Records

- 11.1 In the Senior School sanctions are recorded by Heads of Year on the School Information Management System with the name of the pupil concerned, the reason for the sanction, and the name of the person administering the sanction. In the Junior School the Head of Junior School records any sanctions in the pupil's personal log kept in the form file.
- 11.2 Administration of major punishments (suspension, removal and expulsion) are recorded by the Headmistress in the Punishment File, including the name of the pupil concerned, the reason for the punishment including relevant dates, and the name of the person administering the punishment.

12 Review

- 12.1 A pupil or her parents may request a Governors' Review of the Headmistress' decision to expel or remove a pupil, or where a decision has been made to suspend a pupil for eleven School days or more, or where suspension would prevent the pupil from taking a public examination. The form of application for a review and the review procedures will be supplied to parents on request at the time of the original decision. See the School's separate Expulsion, Removal and Review Policy.
- 12.2 There will be no right to a Governors' Review of other sanctions but a pupil who feels aggrieved may ask the Headmistress or Deputy Head to take up her concerns with the member of staff who imposed the sanction.
